Condition: New. 7th ed. Language: English. Brand new Book. Now published by Oxford University Press—at a new, lower price—The Social Construction of Difference and Inequality: Race, Class, Gender, and Sexuality, Seventh Edition, surveys how and why the categories of race, class, gender, and sexuality are constructed, maintained, experienced, and transformed. This popular anthology moves beyond simply discussing various forms of stratification and the impact on members of marginalized groups by providing a thorough discussion of how such systems of stratification are formed, perpetuated, and interconnected. Each reading ends with critical-thinking questions to help students relate content to their own lives and understand how their attitudes, actions, and perspectives may serve to perpetuate a stratified system. It's a compilation of essays and it has completely influenced my views of history and inequality. There's a LOT to learn from this book. It goes well with Howard Zinn's "A People's History of the United States" and Derrick Jensen's "The Culture of Make Believe." This is a fantastic book!
