Few people saying that nobody knows about the parents of Sai Baba but few others saying that his parents were Brahmins of Patri in the Nizam's State. One day God came into their dream and said that this child is a special child and he is a form of God. Tomorrow a fakir will come to your home and ask your child. At that time you need to give your child to him. That is good for your child's life. God said all these things in the dream. The next day morning their child was crying continuously. Mother was worried about giving the child to the fakir. She prayed to God that their dream should not be true. At the same time, a fakir came. Suddenly the child stopped crying and started laughing. With heavy heart, they gave that child to that fakir. After that, they do not know the way the child went.Sai baba answers for your health Sai Baba growing as a Muslim Fakir, who bought the baby, went to his house and gave it to his wife. She was very happy after seeing that baby. Thinking that lord gave that baby to them, they grew up with it. The child born in the Brahmin family now started grew up in an Islamic family.Sai baba answers for your profession Sai Baba growing as a Hindu A few years later, fakir got sick. He was sure that he will die. So he thought that to whom we need to give the responsibility to grew up the child. At that time one Brahmin person came to his mind. So he called his wife and said everything about that person and he died. Later his wife went to that Brahmins house. After seeing the child face that Brahmin person came to know that this child is having some superpower. So he took the responsibility of raising that boy.Ask sai baba about your problems SaiBaba entering into Shirdi When that boy was 16 years old, he came out of the house with proper permission. He came to the border of Shirdi village and sat under the neem tree in Yoga mudra. He was none other than God Sai Baba. He was in meditation for many days under a neem tree. He did not bother about cold, heat or anything. People were wondering by seeing him. Some people started throwing stones on him. After a few days, he left that place and nobody knows where exactly he went. Some saying that he went to some guru and some saying that he was in the army of Rani Lakshmbai.Sai baba answers for your sorrow In 1858 SaiBaba returned back to Shirdi. Again he sat under the neem tree and started meditating. After a few days, he started living in a very old and dilapidated Masjid. His clothes look so different. He begged for his survival. In this period he started doing many miracles. Now let's see some of the SaiBaba miracles.Sai baba answers for your fear Sai Baba miracles: Joshi Devgankar, a good devotee of SaiBaba. Her daughter was suffering from severe tuberculosis. She took her to many doctors, but no use. Finally, she took her to SaiBaba. After seeing her, SaiBaba said that, don't worry she will be alright soon. Took her to the devotee's hall and make her lay on the rug. Don't give her anything except water. They all obeyed SaiBaba's word and done whatever he said. But that girl died after a week. Her relatives felt sad since SaiBaba's words went wrong.Sai baba answers for your health The next day morning they have arranged for her death ceremony. During that time SaiBaba looks very angry he had one stick in his hand said something in an unknown language. Everybody looking SaiBaba with some shocking reaction. Suddenly that girl opened her eyes and started saying what happened to her. Yesterday night when I was sleeping a black man came near me and took me to the sky. I got afraid. I asked SaiBaba to save me. Suddenly SaiBaba came and saved me from that man. After that, I wake up. By hearing this, everybody got shocked and started realizing the power of SaiBaba.Sai baba answers for your profession Sai Baba miracle 2: In the year 1904, there was an old man named Nanacahp who lived 100 miles away from Shirdi. His daughter named Mainattay came to his house for delivery. Her delivery date was passed but she did not give birth to her baby. After a few days, she got very heavy pain. Doctors said that the situation was very critical. Nanacahp got fear, he doesn't know what to do. He simply sat and prayed SaiBaba.Ask sai baba about your problems On the other side, Ramkirpuva a devotee of SaiBaba said to Baba that he was planning to go to his town and he waits for Baba's approval. SaiBaba said that you can leave but before that, you need to go to Jamner and meet Nanacahp and give some Udi and mantra paper to him. Ramkirpuva agreed that but he was not having enough money to travel up to Jamner. But he got faith in Saibaba. So he started his travel. At 3 am he reached Jalgaon. Jamner is 30 miles from there but he was not having money. So he started walking.Sai baba answers for your sorrow Suddenly a man with a horse cart came near him and shouted, is there anybody named Ramkirpuva here. Ramkirpuva was shocked and said I'm Ramkirpuva. Horse cartman said Nanacahp asked me to pick up you from here. So please come, sir. Ramkirpuva went with him. When the cart reached near Jamner Ramkirpuva's stomach got upset and he went to the bathroom urgently.Sai baba answers for your fear Once he came back there was no horse cart and that man. Since he entered the Jamner village he went by walk to Nanacahp house and gave all those things which Baba requested him to gave. After that Nanacahp started chanting the mantra and used that Udi. Suddenly pain stopped for her daughter and she gave birth to the baby.Sai baba answers for your health Nanacahp thanked Ramkirpuva for coming in time. Ramkirpuva said that its all because of the horse cart which you sent. Nanacahp was shocked because he did not send any horse cart. After that, they came to know that SaiBaba himself came and helped them in the form of horse cartman.Sai baba answers for your profession SaiBaba Miracle 3: Kakaji was a priest in the Saptasirungi temple in the place called Vaani. Debate is going on about his origin – Hindu and Muslims. He is followed by some of the several Hindu and Sufi religious leader. We always believe that Sai Baba is common to all and offer his blessings to his devotees. Shri Sai Baba left his physical body in October 15, 1918.... But, his devotees believe that he is with us and appear live to devotees who believe in him and offer solution to all their problems in much needed time. Shirdi Sai Baba Early Life and Background: Although Shirdi Sai Baba birthplace and origin is unknown, some records suggest that he born close to Shirdi. Based on the historical research into genealogies, researchers believe that Sai Baba born with the name of Haribhau Bhusari. They also suggest that to close follower Mhalsapati, he was born to Brahmin parents in Patri village and had been taken care of fakir during his childhood. Some believe that, he born to Muslim parents and left him to Hindu guru, Venkusa of Selu. They also states that he stayed with Venkusa for more than 12 years. Some writers supporting Hindu background over Muslim, while other combine both the theories. Reportedly, Sai Baba arrived to Shirdi village in the Ahmednagar district of Maharashtra, India – when he was about 16 years old. He led simple lifestyle, sitting under the neem tree and meditating while sitting in yoga position. Sai Satcharita recounts the reaction of the villagers. They states that village people were wonder stuck to see such younger lad practicing meditation, without minding head or cold. Some of the followers namely Mhalsapati, Appa Jogle and Kashinatha, regularly visit him to practice yoga with him. After sometime, he left the village and its unknown where he stayed during that time. Some believe that he met several saints and fakirs, even worked as weaver. He claimed that he fought with the army Rani Lakshmi Bai of Jhansi during the Indian Rebellion of 1857. Sai Baba Growing as Muslim: Fakir, who bought the baby, went his him and gave it to his wife. They believe that lord gave the baby and grew with them. Sai Baba was born in authentic Brahmin Family and now started to rise in an Islamic Family. Sai Baba growing as a Hindu: After few years, fakir got stuck with illness that his days were numbered. He called his wife and told about the person and he died. Later, Fakirs wife taken the child to the Brahmin family and he readily accepted, so they took the responsibility of raising that kid. Sai Baba Settled in Shirdi: In the year 1858, Sai Baba returned to Shirdi – villagers welcome him with the word “Ya Sai” in the Khandoba temple. The name Sai stuck with him and sometime later people started to call him as Sai Baba. During that time, Baba accepted his famous dressing style. The attire makes Sai Baba's identification as a Muslim Fakir. It created some stir among the Hindu devotees. B.V. Narasimhaswami his popular follower recorded that it creates troublesome devotees in 1954. For four to five years, Sai Baba continues to live under a neem tree and often spend time in the jungle. He then moved to old and dilapidated masjid and lived solitary life, surviving by begging for alms. In the mosque, he maintained a sacred life which called as Dhuni from which he followed the custom of giving sacred ash ('Udhi') to his visitors. Some of the devotees believed that the ash have the healing powers and protect them from dangerous situation. Initially, he worked as a local hakim and treated the sick devotees by applying the Udhi (ash), delivered spiritual teaching, recommended to read Hindu texts along with Qur'an. He participated in various religious festivals and also in the habit of preparing food and distributed to his visitors, as Prasad. SaiBaba's entertainment was dancing and singing religious songs. After 1910, Sai Baba fame spread all over India and numerous people started visiting him, because they regarded him as Saint for his super powers. Sai Baba took Mahasamadhi on October 15, 1918 at 2.30pm. His soul left the body on the lap of his devotees. He was buried the “Buty Wada” according to his wish. Later a Mandir was built there known as the “Samadhi Mandir”. Teaching and Practices: In his practice, Sai Baba followed worship methods of both Hindu and Muslims. He practiced namaz, chanting of Al-Fatiha and Qur'an during Muslim festivals. He also enjoyed listening to moulou and qawwali accompanied with the tabla and sarangi twice daily. Sai Baba opposed all sort of procedure on religious and caste background. Although Sai Baba followed ascetic lifestyle, he urged his followers to lead normal life. He encouraged his devotees to pray God, chant God name and read holy scripts – he told Hindu to read texts like Ramayana, Vishnu Sahasranam, Bhagavad Gita Yoga Vasistha and Muslims to study the Qur'an. He explained the meaning of the Hindu scriptures in the spirit of Advaita Vedanta. Sai Baba also understands the religious text from both religions. The three main Hindu Spiritual paths – Bhakti Yoga, Jnana Yoga and Karma Yoga were included in Sai Baba teachings. Another example his he combined both faiths and named his mosque as Dwarakamai. He believed that God penetrates everything and lives everywhere. SaiBaba also emphasized the importance of devotion to God – bhakti – and surrender to his will. He urged his devotees to have faith and devotion to the spiritual preceptor. Also, he urged all his devotees to overcome negative features of the characters and develop Good thoughts. He always believed that “Everyone Fate Was Determined By their Karma”. Sai Baba left no books or written woks. His practices were oral and short sayings. He also urged not be greed and material attachment.
